4. Prof. D. K. Midya, Organizing Secretary, IAC-2017 reported that the last date of the panel on North East India entitled "Plight of the peripheral Tribal communities of North East India: Discourse on livelihoods, culture, marginality and developmental interventions, has been extended upto 15 January 2017, in response to the discussion with the Director, IGRRMS. Another special session on "Anthropology in Defense: Anthropology of the soldiers and for the soldiers" is proposed as there is a possibility of funding from DRDO. The last date for this panel has also been extended upto 15 January, 2017. It has been unanimously resolved that the extension of date is ratified.

5. The Teacher-in-charge has placed the letter from Dr. Santanu Panda for permission to use departmental computer facilities, sent to the Department by the Registrar, VU vide diary no. 13895 dated 23/12/11. After thorough discussion, it appears that, (i) the Department has space, (ii) the number of students has been increased, though the number of computers has not been increased proportionately; (iii) with these limited number of computers, the students and scholars of PG, M.Phil, Ph.D. courses are hardly accommodated; (iv) for SAP related matter, sometimes the computer remains engaged.

Therefore, it is resolved that the matter may be placed before the authority for final decision and directions in this regard.

6. Miscellaneous:

(i) The Teacher-in-charge placed two applications of Dr. S. Bandyopadhyay and Dr. S. Sankar for acting as "Guest teacher" in the Dept. of Anthropology, WBSU, which was sent to the Dept. by Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, VU for DC's opinion. After due deliberations the members of the DC unanimously resolved that Dr. S. Bandyopadhyay and Dr. S. Sankar may be allowed to take classes in the Dept. of Anthropology, WBSU, without hampering their duties in VU. The Teacher-in-charge is requested to take necessary action for the onward transmission of the applications to the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, VU for his kind approval.

No other issues has been raised.

The meeting ended with thanks to and from the chair.
