

Acknowledgement

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Debasish Biswas, Assistant Professor, Department of Business Administration, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore, West Bengal, India, who has been my supervisor since the beginning of my study. He provided me with countless caring suggestions, vital advice and constant encouragement during the course of this work.

I am also grateful to all the Managers, Assistant Managers, Trade Union Leaders, Labour Welfare Officers of different tea estates of North Bengal region, officials of the Tea Board of India's regional office of Jalpaiguri, and the Librarian of the University of North Bengal for their wholehearted co-operation for this study.

I also thank to Mr. Chandan Dasgupta (Deputy Labour Commissioner, Siliguri), Mr. Kollol Duta (Assistant Labour Commissioner, Alipurduar) for extending their help hands in conducting this empirical study.

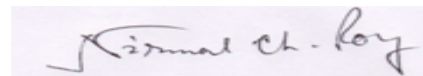

I express my gratitude to all the research scholars and teachers of the Department of Business Administration of Vidyasagar University for their advices and suggestions in this research work.

I owe a lot to the authorities of the Vidyasagar University, different librarians and all those who inspired and helped me in this research work. I must thank Mr. Subasish Khan and Dr. Partha Sarkar for their unconditional support. Again, I must thank Dr. Abhishek Mishra for preparing a neat typed copy of the thesis.

Last but not the least; I must acknowledge my deep gratitude to my parents for their continuous support and encouragement to complete this study.

The responsibility for errors is remained me alone.
