

c) Tammy Karam appeared and presented his pre-submission seminar proposal on "Physiographic Micro-zonation of Jorba Madhupur District for sustainable agro-national resources management: An appraisal of remote sensing and GIS" in front of the members of the Ph.D committee. He defended his presentation in favour of his Ph.D thesis and answered all the questions raised in the meeting successfully. His proposal is approved and accepted in the meeting.

d) Nirupam Acharya appeared and presented his pre-submission seminar proposal on "Characteristics and diversity of fish germplasm and water bodies in Jorba Madhupur district, West Bengal using geospatial technology" in front of the members of the Ph.D committee. He defended his presentation in support of his Ph.D thesis and answered all the questions raised in the meeting successfully. His proposal is approved and accepted in the meeting.

e) Kunal Karthi Maiti appeared and presented his pre-submission seminar proposal on "Geo-environmental studies in relation to mining activities, Noamundi Block, West Singhbhum, Jharkhand, India" in front of the members of the Ph.D committee. He defended his presentation in support of his Ph.D thesis and answered all the questions raised in the meeting successfully. His proposal is approved and accepted in the meeting.

f) Subrata Sankar appeared and presented his pre-submission seminar proposal on "Application of Geo-spatial Techniques in Forest Resource Management for Jangal Mahal area, Paschim Medinipur and Tharagram district, West Bengal, India" in front of the members of the Ph.D committee. He defended his presentation

20-01-2016
Bansubhadra