

Acknowledgement

I am extremely grateful to my research guide, Professor Ujjayan Bhattacharya, Department of History, Vidyasagar University for his sincerest attention, scholarly inputs and consistent encouragement which I received throughout the research work. I am also thankful to all my respected teachers, specially Prof. Ananda Gopal Ghosh, Prof. Ratna Roy Sanyal and Dr. Kausik Bandyopadhyay, NBU who have helped me from my students life to till date. Their valuable suggestions always encouraging me.

I am also indebted to the University Grants Commission for providing me fellowship under Faculty Development Programme which helped me to concentrate and finish my research work. My colleague cum didi Dr. Chhabi Sarkar, Mr. Joydeb Das, Librarian, Dr. Madhumita Roy and Principal of my college, Dr. Manabenra Sahu and Dr. Asim Bera, Principal of Mahisadal Raj College helped me in many ways. All staffs and members of West Bengal State Archives, National Library, Kolkata and Central Library of North Bengal University also deserve my sincerest thanks.

I am grateful to my parents Sri Balai Mandal and Smt. Maya Mandal who has always given me blessings and inspirations in my academic carrier. I am indebted to my beloved husband Mr. Chayan Bera for his support and encouragement. I am also thankful to my brother, Mr. Saikat Mandal; my son, Master Ribhu Bera; my parents-in-law Mrs Kajal Bera and Mihir Bera; brother in law Mr. Ayan Bera for supporting me.

I am devoting my thesis to my father, a Journalist of Dainik Basumati and Uttar Banga Sambad, a daily newspapers, whose influence and inspiration gave me the light of my life.