

2015

M.A. Part-I Examination

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PAPER—IV

Full Marks : 100

Time : 4 Hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Illustrate the answers wherever necessary.

Write the answers to questions of each half in separate books.

The questions are of equal value.

Answer any six questions taking three from each Half.

FIRST HALF

1. Examine the various stages of development of Public Administration as an academic discipline with particular reference to the situation after 1990.
2. Analyse the nature and scope of development administration. Do you consider it to be an effective model for the developing countries? Argue your case.
3. Find out the main insights of the Classical Administrative Theory in Organizational analysis.

4. What are 'Closed' and 'Open' systems? How do they differ from each other?
5. Attempt a brief review of the public choice theory as an approach to the study public administration.
6. Distinguish between 'policy-making' and 'decision-making'. Examine the different models of policy-making.

SECOND HALF

7. How is accountability of bureaucracy to the legislature ensured in a modern democratic state?
8. Write an essay on the mechanism of redressal of citizens' grievances in India.
9. What do you mean by administrative reforms? What are its needs in modern administration?
10. Analyse the structures, functions and the role of the panchayat system in West Bengal.
11. Indicate 'briefly the approaches to rural development in India since the beginning of five-year plans.
12. Analyse the basic features of anti-poverty programmes in India.