

2013

M.Sc.

3rd Semester Examination

ANTHROPOLOGY

PAPER—ANT-305

Full Marks : 40

Time : 2 Hours

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate full marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Illustrate the answers wherever necessary.

Answer Q. No. 1 and three questions from the rest.

- 1. Answers any five from the following: 5×2
- What is Applied Anthropology?
  - What interest does serve the Fifth Schedule of the Indian Constitution ?
  - Give the principal objective of the National Forest Policy, 1988.
  - What is the main objective of the Panchayatiraj institution in India ?

(Turn Over)

- (e) Mention two poverty alleviation schemes in India.
- (f) What does the concept of 'development' mean ?
- (g) Give two problems of tribal communities in India.
- (h) Mention two differences between the Action approach and Participatory approach to development
2. Discuss the scope of Development Anthropology. 10
3. What do you mean by Action Anthropology ? Describe the operative model of Action Anthropological Approach with suitable illustration. 3+7
4. Define Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA). Mention its types. State its limitations. 3+5+2
5. Explain the concept of common Property Resources (CPR) elaborating the conceptual dimensions involved in it. Mention different types of CPR. 5+5
6. What is rural development? Critically examine the objectives of four ongoing schemes of rural development in India. 2+8
-