

2014

M.Sc.

1st Semester Examination

ANTHROPOLOGY

PAPER—ANT-101

Full Marks : 50

Time : 2 Hours

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate full marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Illustrate the answers wherever necessary.

Answer Q. No. 1 and three questions from the rest.

1. Answers five questions from the following : 2×5
- (a) Define Prehistory.
  - (b) What are the major sub disciplines of Anthropology ?
  - (c) Distinguish between innate and cultural behaviour.
  - (d) Mention the two major methods of Anthropology.
  - (e) Mention two areas of collaboration between Biological Anthropology and sociocultural Anthropology.

(Turn Over)

- (f) State the two important differences between Anthropology and Political Science.
- (g) What do you mean by 'biocultural holism' ?
- (h) What is Applied anthropology ?
2. Briefly compare the development of Biological Anthropology and Sociocultural Anthropology in the European context. Account for the differences in course of their development. 6+4
3. Discuss briefly the Ethical issues in Anthropology. 10
4. Briefly discuss the relationship of Biological anthropology with biological and medical sciences. 10
5. Define power. State the relationship between power and authority with an example. Discuss briefly on the relationship between Political Science and Anthropology. 2+3+5
6. Discuss how the nature and objectives of Biological Anthropology were transformed under the influence of evolutionary theory and Genetics. 10

(Internal Assessment - 10 Marks)

---