2nd meeting of the Advisory committee of Women's Studies Centre,
Vidyasagar University

No. VU/wsc/vc/94/2014

Venue: Committee room- I

Date: 25.06.2014

Time: 3:00 p.m.

The 2nd meeting of Advisory Committee was held on 25.06.2014 under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Vice-chancellor, Professor Ranjan Chakrabarti and following resolutions have been emerged out of the discussions among the members present in the meeting.

Resolution -1

It was resolved that two awareness programmes and two seminars are to be organized by the centre during the session, 2014-15.

Resolution- 2

The meeting also resolved that a certificate course is to be conducted by the women's Studies Centre. A brief outline of the proposed certificate course title, after being decided as "The avenues to overcome the stress and strain of working women" was given to the Hon'ble Vice-chancellor for his comments. This is in accordance with the desire of Hon'ble Vice-chancellor who emphasized upon the problem of general women instead of working women.

Resolution- 3

It was also resolved that the different committees of Women's Studies Centre are to be reconstituted by the Vice Chancellor.

Resolution -4

It was resolved that an M.Phil programme may be introduced to enhance the academic ambiance of the centre.

Resolution -5

The meeting also resolved that two outreach programmes are to be conducted by the centre in this academic session.

Resolution -6

It was also resolved that the outcomes of all academic activities organized by Women's Studies Centre, VU should be highlighted in the University website. The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor also advised to utilize all the sanctioned funds received from UGC in time. He suggested us to send the annual report and UC to UGC at the earliest. He also directed the committee to undertake activities with full enthusiasm in order to fulfill the mission and vision of the organization as per the mandates of the sponsoring agency.
