

Acknowledgement

I am deeply indebted to my revered teacher and supervisor, Professor Ashis Kumar Paul, Department of Geography and Environment Management and Dr. Jatisankar Bandyopadhyay, Department of Remote Sensing and Geographical Information System, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore. I acknowledge deeply the memory of their association which has infused within me an unflinching thirst to read, enjoy and appreciate literature. My debt to themselves for their guidance, cooperation and encouragement is too large for public acknowledgement. I am grateful for their scholarly guidance, comments and meticulous reading of my thesis.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my parents who have inspired me to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield in all my endeavours. No word of appreciation is enough for their unconditional love, understanding and care. I am also thankful to all other members of my family who in the course of my work have put up with inconveniences and heartily co-operated with me.

I also owe a deep sense of gratitude to my colleagues in the Department of Remote Sensing and Geographical Information System and also the Department of Geography and Environment Management, Vidyasagar University for their incessant encouragement, co-operation and extremely useful suggestions and discussions at various stages of my research.

I am thankful to different Government Officer, Technical Assistant of laboratory of Vidyasagar University and the librarians of the Central Library and Departmental Library, Vidyasagar University; National Library, Kolkata; British Council Library, Kolkata; American Information Resource Center, Kolkata for their immense and generous help.

I am also indebted to The Researcher's Association of Vidyasagar University Midnapore for giving me opportunity to fulfillment of my research work in due time.

My indebtedness to eminent scholars in the area of research and also to the inhabitants of my research field is duly acknowledged.

Execution and completion of research work demand spirit of enquiry, judicious criticism, assistance, co-operation and encouragement. Thanks are also due to all those who have fostered within me the above qualities that have enabled me to reach at this stage. I humbly bow my head before the Almighty for all the blessings showered on me in the course of my life. It is only the Grace of the Almighty which helped me to carry out this task successfully in time. I beg their pardon who have extended their support and help in various ways but for want of space I haven't been able to mention their names here.
