

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At first, I would like to pay my humble regards, indebtedness and gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr Bidhan Chandra Patra, Professor, Department of Zoology, Vidyasagar University. Midnapore-721 102, West Bengal who introduced this great problem to me. Under his constant guidance and helpful suggestions, this thesis has been completed. It would be expressed in a befitting manner that without unreserved affectionate encouragement and supervision, it would not have been possible for me to proceed with this work in single handed manner. My work was much simplified by my supervisors.

I am indebted to Dr. Mrinmoy Ghorai, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Panskura Banamali College, Dr. Tapas Kumar Dutta, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Bankura Sammilani College, Bankura for their valuable and intellectual help during completion a major part of my work. I owe a great deal to other faculty members, Department of Zoology, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore, West Bengal for providing me the necessary laboratory facilities for my research work and Professor Ranjan Chakrabarti, Honorable Vice-Chancellor and Chairman of the Ph. D. Committee of Zoology, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore, West Bengal for his kind critical suggestions and recommendations of my work for Ph. D.

I gratefully acknowledge the help rendered in various ways by Mr. Manojit Bhattacharya, Dr. Pravat Kumar Shit, Mr. Srikanta Parua, Mr. Deep Sankar Chini, Mr. Soumendu Ghosh, & Mr. Avijit Kar, Aquaculture Research Unit, Department of Zoology, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore. I am also grateful to technical staffs of the Department of Zoology, Vidyasagar University, West Bengal, India.

Finally, I expressed my deepest appreciation to my parents who endured the long evenings and weekends. I devoted to manuscript writing with extraordinary grace and provided constant encouragement. I want particularly to acknowledge the crucial assistance of my beloved wife, son, daughter, brothers and all family members for their constant inspiration, supreme sacrifice and eternal benediction in evolving the tiny personality in a magnified manner.

Thanks are also due to the staff-members of the following organizations for their invaluable support:
