

Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction

- 1.1 Introduction
- 1.2 Review of the Existing Literature:
  - 1.2.1 Trends and Pattern in Consumption
  - 1.2.2 Demand for Food Consumption
  - 1.2.3 Influencing Factors and Constraints in Food Consumption
  - 1.2.4 Inequality in Consumption
  - 1.2.5 Tribal Consumption
  - 1.2.6 Impact of Social Security Programs in Consumption
  - 1.2.7 Impact of Common Property Resources in Consumption
- 1.3 Gap of the Study
- 1.4 Objectives
- 1.5 Hypotheses
- 1.6 Sources of Data
  - 1.6.1 Secondary Data and their Sources
  - 1.6.2 Primary Data and Sample Frame
- 1.7 Research Methodology
  - 1.7.1 Methodology of Data Analysis
- 1.8 Plan of the Study

Chapter 2: Trend and Pattern of Tribal Consumption vis-à-vis Non-Tribal Consumption in West Bengal

2.1 Socio- Economic Status of the Tribes and Non Tribes Household in West Bengal

2.2 Trend of Consumption Scenario

2.3 Pattern of Consumption Expenditure

2.4 Food insecurity and Poverty

2.5 Impact of Public Distribution System on Consumption

2.6 Convergence in the Status of Poverty and Food Insecurity between Tribes and Non Tribes

2.7 Summing Up

3. Dependency of Market and Non Market sources of Tribal People of Backward Districts of West Bengal

3.1 Dependency of Non Marketed and Marketed Sources of Consumption of the Tribals

3.2 Trend of Net Marketed Percapita Consumption of Tribes

3.3 Econometric Analysis of Dependency on Marketed Consumption

3.4 Summing Up

4. The Variation of the Pattern of Consumption among Major Tribes of Backward Districts of West Bengal

4.1 Socio and Economic Status of the Tribes

4.2 Pattern of Tribal Consumption across Groups over the Districts

4.3 Poverty and Food Insecurity Scenario of the Tribal Groups across Districts

4.4 Econometric Analysis of Independent Variables over MPCE at the Household Level across Tribes across Districts

4.5 Summing Up

5. Impact of Social Protection Programmes and Common Property Resources for the Food Security of Tribes in the Backward Regions of West Bengal

5.1 Social Protection Instruments for Combating Food Insecurity

5.2 Common Property Resources for Combating Food Insecurity

5.3 Social Protection Programmes (SPPs), Common Property Resources(CPRs) and Food Security

5.4 Impact of Common Property Resources and Social Protection Programs (SPP) Over Study Area

5.5 Path Analysis

5.6 Econometric Analysis of Independent Variables over MPCE at the Household Level

5.7 Econometric analysis of the impact of Social Protection Programs (SPP) and Common Property Resources (CPR) over Food Security

5.8 Summing Up

6. Summary and Concluding Observations

6.1 Summary

6.1.1 Trend and Pattern of Tribal and Non Tribal Consumption

6.1.2 Dependency of Market Sources of Tribes

6.1.3 Pattern of Consumption across Tribes across Districts

6.1.4 Impact of Social Protection Programmes and Common Property

Resource on tribal food security

6.2 Concluding Observations

6.3 Policy Recommendations

6.4 Limitations of the Study

6.5 Scope of Future Research

Bibliography

Glossary

Appendix

Questionnaire