It is a pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my heartiest thanks to them who have supported me through the years. First and foremost, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and regards to my supervisor, Prof. Ajay Kumar Misra for his guidance, encouragement, patience, friendship and support, enable me to develop such an interesting and advanced field of research and to cheerfully engage in new scientific discovery endeavor in the right perspective way. It has been a great honour to work with him who cared so much about my research work and responded to my queries promptly. I am indebted to him for giving me enough academic freedom during my research. His valuable deliberations at each and every stage gave me new insight into the subject.

Not only in the matter of academics, but also my interaction with him helped me to grow as a human being. I could say unequivocally that Prof. Misra is one of the most cooperative persons that I have ever come across in my life. I have learnt a good deal from him on professional conduct; the way a scholar should conduct oneself. For me, he is the quintessential teacher; the epitome of scholarship. I am certain that if I could imbibe in myself even an insignificant percentage of Prof. Misra professional ethics then I would have a satisfactory professional life.

In fact this humble attempt of mine to pay homage to Prof. Misra would, perhaps, be incomplete if I do not mention the cooperation, relentless support and guidance that I have received from him to complete this arduous journey.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Hon'ble Vice chancellor Prof. Ranjan Chakraborty and Registrar Dr. Jayanta Kishore Nandi for providing various facilities. It is my duty to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. S. S. Islam, Prof. B. G. Bag, Prof. A. K. Panda, Dr. S. Dalai, Dr. S. Roy, Dr. S. C. Manna, and Dr. M. Hossain of this department.

I also extend my thanks to my lab mates Dr. Gobinda Prasad Sahoo, Dr. Sadhan Samanta, Ashim Maity, Dr. Debasish Das, Dr. Prativa Mazumdar, Debkumar Mondal, Dr. Milan Shyamal and Rakesh Maity, Naren Mudi, Prabhat Kumar Giri, Paresh Hazra, Shashanka Shekhar Samanta for their generous cooperation in my research work. It will be a precious memory for me that we spent and enjoyed together in those difficult and happiest times.

Overall and above all, I feel a deep sense of gratitude for my loving father, Sri Subhas Chandra Maity, and my sweet mother, Smt. Kalpana Maity, who were always proud of me. They have always supported, stimulated and believed in me, in all my endeavours. They have always been my greatest source of inspiration and I always find myself lucky and proud to be a part of them. Especially, I thank my beloved wife, Mrs. Puspita Roy (Maity) for his understanding, support and patience; without who this effort would have been worth nothing. I am lucky for her who is developing into a great human being in all walks of life, allowed me to focus on my research. She never let me feel that I am lacking in my responsibilities anywhere during this time.

I also wish to acknowledge my elder sister Joyanti Maity (Das) and Sonali Maity (Nayak), little aunty Udita Maity for their liberal assistance in each moment. I also convey my gratitude to my uncle Dr. Mahadeb Maity. Without their constant support and inspiration it would have been impossible for me to be where I am at present. I thank the almighty who gave me strength and belief to cope with difficult situations aroused during my candidature.

I greatly acknowledge the help provide by USIC, Vidyasagar University, for doing spectroscopic measurements and optical microscopic measurements and to Prof. Nilmoni Sarkar, Department of Chemistry, IIT Kharagpur, India for life time measurements.

Finally, I gratefully acknowledge Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), New Delhi for providing fellowship to carry out the research work. I am thankful to Department of Science and technology (DST), University Grand Commission (UGC), New Delhi and Government of India, for financial assistance.
