

List of Plates

	Page No.
Plate 2.1: Earlier salt processing areas are mostly converted into the fisheries (a) and a few areas still utilized for salt processing fields (b).....	38
Plate 2.2: Tourism infrastructural development extended along the shorefront areas of the Mandarmani (a), Tajpur (b), and Digha coastal belt (c, d).....	39
Plate 2.3: Degeneration of dune habitats by the tourism infrastructural development at Digha.....	41
Plate 2.4: Fish landing stations and fish market at the Sankarpur (a) and Digha Mohona (b) at the Champa river mouth.....	41
Plate 2.5: Natural vegetation at dune fringe areas (a), habitat restoration process by afforestation programme (b) and nursery (c, d) on the older sand dunes of Contai	45
Plate 2.6: Mudflat at the right bank of Hugli river in Haldia municipality area.....	51
Plate 2.7: Halophytic grasslands on the Haldi estuary bank margin tidal flat arresting mangrove seeds for the growth of new habitats.....	51
Plate 2.8: Urban-industrial development over the wetlands after landfilling at Haldia.....	53
Plate 2.9: Intensive built-up areas at Digha coastal belt at present.....	56
Plate 2.10: Sand mining and dune flattening at the different parts of Digha coastal stretch.....	57
Plate 2.11: Erosion and damages of the hotels by the storm effects at the shorefront areas (a-c) and new hotels are coming up at the backshore areas over the wetlands (d-f) in the Mandarmani coastal stretch.....	57
Plate 2.12: Concretization of the shorefront areas at Tajpur-Sankarpur coastal stretch.....	58
Plate 2.13: New construction over the wetlands (a) and in agricultural lands (b) of Contai.....	59
Plate 2.14: Bare land at Uttar Darua in the Contai municipality area.....	59
Plate 2.15: Brickfield over the bank margin mudflat areas of Hugli river.....	61
Plate 4.1: Tidewater entered into the hotel during high-tide at Mandarmani coastal belt.....	91
Plate 4.2: Shorefront sand dunes are severely eroded at the different sites of Mandarmani-Sankarpur coastal stretch.....	93
Plate 4.3: Cyclonic storm-wave overtopping the seawall at Digha.....	100
Plate 4.4: Cyclonic storm frequently inundating the new areas of shorefront position at Digha.....	100

Plate 4.5: Mud-bank erosion at the right bank of Hugli river in Haldia.....	108
Plate 4.6: Mud layer exposed at (a) Mandarmani and (b) Tajpur coastal belt due to the removal of beach sand by longshore current transport.....	113
Plate 4.7: Some fragmented sand dunes still remain at the shorefront areas of (a) Jamra Shyampur and (b) Mandarmani in unaffected and partially affected conditions.....	113
Plate 5.1: Dune cutting (b) and flattening (a) for housing construction in Contai.....	124
Plate 5.2: Wetland filling for construction of hotel at Mandarmani.....	124
Plate 5.3: Bare soil under the floor of Casuarina trees at the dune top across the wind passes in Digha.....	124
Plate 5.4: Different types of waste dumped into the ponds and open lands of Haldia municipality areas.....	128
Plate 5.5: Solid waste collection by the municipality authority (a) which is managed by the WBWML (b) in Haldia at present.....	129
Plate 5.6: Air quality is deteriorated at Haldia industrial area due to (a, c) untreated smoke and (b) somehow treated in few sites after the burning process.....	133