

Acknowledgement

It is a great pleasure for me to express my sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor, Professor Sudipta Dalai for his excellent guidance, constant encouragement, constructive criticism and continuous support throughout the course of this work.

Not only I am grateful to him for the liberty of thought and work he has best owed me during these days, but also I owe a lot academic indebt to him for teaching me many basic skills, techniques of many aspects of chemistry. In fact, I privileged to have him as a supervisor who has inspired me to do research in the interdisciplinary area, which instilled confidence in me to further my research interest.

My sincere thanks to Prof. S.S. Islam, Prof. B.G. Bag, Prof. A.K. Misra, Prof. A.K. Panda, Dr. S. Roy, Dr. S. Manna for the informative and interesting courses they taught me as a part of the course work which helped me a lot to develop my skill. I am thankful to rest of the faculty members of our department for the helpful suggestions they gave me whenever I needed.

I am thankful to Dr. H. Puschmann, Department of Chemistry, Durham University, Durham DH13LE, UK for X-ray single crystal diffraction study.

I express my thanks to all the staff members of the Department of Chemistry and USIC of Vidyasagar University for their help.

I feel fortunate enough to Abhinandan, Madhusudan, Durgasankar, Swapan, Somnath and Laxmikanta as my lab mates. Each one of them equally contributed in different way to take up my course so fruitfully and their invariable love made me laugh throughout this period. I thank all of them heartily.

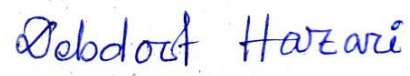

I am also thankful to all my friends inside and outside of Vidyasagar University for their support and help. It is indeed difficult to name out them all.

I express my thanks to all the staff members of my school for their cooperation.

Finally I offer my special thanks to my parents, wife, Son for their moral support, sacrifice, patience and love.

Due acknowledgments to them, whose names are unintentionally missed out despite of their unconditional help for this thesis.
