Acknowledgement

I am intensely beholden to my respected teacher and supervisor, Professor Ashis Kumar Paul, Department of Geography, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore. I acknowledge truly his blessings and his method of imparting knowledge within me in all fields of life. I am indebted to him for his encouragement, guidance and cooperation.

My parents are the true inspiration of my life. They are my constant pillar. They taught me to struggle and fight till the last breath. The success I own today is all due to their saying to don't stop after each failure. No word of appreciation is enough for the unconditional love and care from my younger brother. I am also thankful to all other members of my family who also gave me valuable advice in the course of my work which helped me to strive more and more.

I also owe a deep sense of gratitude to my colleagues in the Department of Geography, Vidyasagar University for their benevolent cooperation and encouragement for the critical hurdles to cross. I am thankful to all the Master degree students of Department of Geography who have been helping me at each square of my field work. I would also like to show my deep sense of appreciation to all my colleagues at my workplace, K. D. College of Commerce and General Studies, for rendering a lot of space to me to carry out my research work.

Other special mention of acknowledgement is for my closest friends without whom it would have been hard to bear the complexities of life.

My gracious indebtedness to renowned scholars in the area of research work is duly acknowledged.

Research work is not a solo handed task it is a deliberate involvement, participation, criticism and encouragement from all sections of my life. Thank you each and every members of my life in the course of this research who have made this thesis successful overcoming all odds in my life. I also beg your pardon to all others whom I have not mentioned in the process of acknowledgement, I show them a deep sense of respect.
