

Acknowledgements

At the outset, I express my heartfelt and spontaneous gratitude to Dr. Debasish Biswas, Assistant Professor, Department of Business Administration, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore, West Bengal, India for his illuminating supervision, constant support and ceaseless inspiration throughout the course of this research work. His expertise and insightful suggestions have made it possible to complete the thesis work.

I am also indebted to all the bank officials, particularly Branch Managers for providing necessary data, and information in connection with my research work, and also for arranging personal interactions with the employees for the research work. I must make a special reference to Mr. N.K. Mallick, Assistant General Manager (Coordination and H.R.M) of Bank of Baroda, who has helped me in various possible ways to collect data from different branches.

I express my sincere thanks to Mr. Rajen Nagar, President, AIBEA, who extended support, cooperation to me and gave me his valuable comments, expertise that helped me to complete my research work in due course.

I acknowledge my deep gratitude to all the faculty members of the Department of Business Administration, Vidyasagar University, who have provided me moral support and inspiration for the completion of the thesis. I am thankful to all the research scholars of the said department for their cooperation and support.

I feel indebted to the authorities, particularly the members of Ph.D. cell of Vidyasagar University for their constant help and encouragement, whenever needed.

I acknowledge my immense debt to my parents Dr. Ajit Kumar Ghosh and Dr. (Mrs.) Bhabani Ghosh for taking keen interest in my work. Words fail to express the extent of my gratitude towards all the sacrifices they have made for the successful completion of my work. I lovingly appreciate the presence of my adorable daughter Ms. Sharanya Roy, who has always been a source of joy in all my endeavours, and for bearing with me throughout this extended period of student life.

Lastly, my head bows down before the Almighty for making this work possible.

The responsibility for errors remains with me alone.
