

LIST OF TABLES

No	Title of the Tables	Page no.
I.1	List of the paikars were entrusted to supply weaving goods to the aurungs of the EIC of South- West Bengal in 1767	33-35
I.2	List of the Company's invested amount for collecting piece goods in South West Bengal in 1755	41
I.3	List of the Company's invested amount for collecting piece goods in South West Bengal in 1757	41
I.4	A statistics of Number of looms at work in the aurungs of South West Bengal	42
I.5	An account of Narrain Satpati's collecting goods as a agent of the Company	44
I.6	A list of the amount of Piece goods exported from Midnapore in 1780-1781	45
I.7	A list of amount of the Piece goods exported from Khirpoy in 1780-1781	45
I.8	A statistic of the weavers Family in Midnapore in 1788, Parganah wise Distribution	54
I.9	List of the Company's invested amount in raw silk increased which was realized by the comparison between the year 1776-77 and 1777-78	60
I.10	List of a large amount of raw silk was exported from Radhanagar—the main centre of raw silk production in South West Bengal	63
II.1	A statistics of Parganah - wise distribution of the market value of the classified land of Midnapore in 1788	74
II.2	A statistics of the average production of rice per ' bigha ' in South West Bengal	76
II.3	A statistics of Land revenue in 1771 to 1772: the growth rate of Midnapore and Hijli	78
II.4	A statistics of the source price fluctuation of grains in Midnapore 1729-1790	85
II.5	An accounts of rice in Midnapur and Jaleswar in 1773	89
II.6	List of the production of crops varied due to natural adversity in Midnapur district in South West Bengal	90
II.7	An accounts of grain in the Tamluk and Mahishadal District in 1787-88	94

No	Title of the Tables	Page no.
II.8	An accounts of Grain in the Hijli District and like Wise Four Parganah Of Jaleswar in 1787-88	95
II.9	List of amount of Food grains imported from the Maratha district and its exportation to Calcutta	96
II.10	A statistics of grain price in the markets of Tamluk Division from the 1 st March, 1788 to the 15 th March, 1788	101
II.11	A statistics of price of grains in the markets of Tamluk division during the 1 st October, 1788 to the 15 th October, 1788	102
II.12	A statistics of grain price in the markets of Hijli Division from the 16 th March, 1788 to 31 st March, 1788	103
II.13	A statistics of price of grains in the markets of Hijli division within six months in the same markets	104
II.14	A comparative figure of price of rice in the mufassals of Burdwan, Midnapore, Bishnupur different provinces of South West Bengal in 1775	106
II.15	A statistics of the soaring price of grains after the Famine of 1770 in Midnapore	106
II.16	List of some mahajans and landlords who were actually grain merchants and stored grain in their granaries discovered by Mr. William.	114
III.1	The amount of revenue received from Hijli Division during the five years commencing from 1179 B.S-1183 B.S	139
III.2	A statistics report of November 1776 salary of agent and the other servants of the company. in South West Bengal	140
III.3	The statistics report of April, 1781 showing the importance of Anandapur kept up in the subsequent period of time after the abolition of the society of trade	149
III.4	The amount salt produced in the parganahs ( cluster of villages) of Beerkul, Balsai, Mirgodha, Kakra Chouro and Lumpree and sent to the golahs of Patna	150
III.5	A chain of several regional market zones which formed larger inter – regional commercial zones in South West Bengal	152
III.6	List of the senior civil servants taking resort to large- scale investment in salt trading and their factories in different places	155
III.7	List of the Bengalee merchants who assisted of the private traders and company officials.	160

No	Title of the Tables	Page no.
III.8	A Statistics showing the quantity of salt purchased by the Bengalee traders	161
III.9	A Statistical report showing problems cropped up due to the competition among the English private traders and the native traders, in connection with the supply of salt.	162
III.10	List of advance payment made by the zamindars at Kakarchor in 1774	163
III.11	List of the retail shops established in the large public markets	172
IV.1	An account of the sair revenue collected from ghats of Bishnupur and its surrounding areas of South West Bengal in Bengali year 1183	196
IV.2	Statistics from South West Bengal showing a large amount of goods transported in regional areas with rowannahs and without rowannahs	199
IV.3	List of the amount & particulars of the demand made by the izaradars as the compensation for their loss due to transportation of goods with rowannah .	199
IV.4	List of the ghats of South West Bengal mentioned below rowannah was not accepted below and customs were collected forcefully in those ghats .	200
IV.5	List of the rahadary chowkies at Bishnupur in South West Bengal which collected customs even after the instruction of the Govt	203
IV.6	An account of the rahadary duties collected at the in land chowkies in the chakla of Midnapore in 1181	205
IV.7	A statistics of annual deduction of Revenue which will be occasioned by the abolitions of Inland Chowkies in Jaleswar Parganah in 1181	206
IV.8	An account of duties, toll fees, ground rents collected from the ganjs in South West Bengal	211
IV.9	A statistics of duties levied for eight years in the haats and markets of Mulliarah in the district of Bishnupur.	213
IV.10	List of the authorized chowkies and ferries of government under Tamluk division	219
IV.11	List of Salt chowkies of Midnapore and Jaleswar parganahs	220
IV.12	An account of sair chilkee collected in the year 1177-78 under the chief of the daroga	221
IV.13	A statistics of the rate of the sair chilkee under the Burdwan Sadar chowki	222
IV.14	A statistics of sair chilkee collection in the chowkies	223

No	Title of the Tables	Page no.
IV.15	A statistics of 1788 of the places shows that the sulty duties to be collected from the chowkies were under the hands of farmers/ izaradars	224
IV.16	A statistics of the rates of canal is evident through the following statistic	228
V.1	A list of haats, ghats, bazars and gunjs of Hijli, Tamluk, and Jaleswar division were established by the ruling elite	237-238
V.2	A list of haats, ghats, bazars and gunjs of Hijli, Tamluk, and Jaleswar division were established by the ruling elite	239
V.3	A list of the Particulars of ganjs established in order to help some specific people	242
V.4	A Statistics of numerous markets developed in the basis of production almost every Parganah in South –West Bengal.	247
V.5	An account of share of money collected over nine years from Midnapore town and spent in charitable purpose.	252
V.6	A statistics of revenue collection from the bazars of Midnapore and spent in charitable work	253
V.7	An account of money collected from the bazars of Mahisadal in South West-Bengal during 1790	261
V.8	A statistics of the duties collected from the bazaars of Tamluk division	262
V.9	Abstract Account of the division of Hijli from 11 May- 11 Sept 1790.	263
V.10	A statistics of duties collected from various commodities in the contemporary markets and even the stalls at Narayanpur under Tamluk division	264
V.11	An account of duties collected from the haats in the province of Midnapur	266
V.12	An account of duties collected from the haats in the province of Jaleswar	267
V.13	An Account particular of the Sayer Revenue of Bissanpore of the Bengali Year 1183	268
V.14	A list of haats, ghats, and bazars , not included under the govt. settlement situated in Malgujari and Lakhiraj land	273