This is to certify that the thesis entitled “Investigation on the diversity of two species of Crinum L. with reference to their morphology, anatomy, cytology and active principle” submitted by Ms. Anushree Dolai, registered under this university in 2013 (Reg. No. 0517/Ph.D/Sc.), for the award of Ph. D. degree, is entirely based on her own research works and findings under my supervision. It is also certified that neither full nor any part of this work has been submitted earlier for obtaining any degree or diploma or any other academic award under this university as well as elsewhere. The sources of information taken as help for executing the work and drawing support in discussing the significance of the work have been duly acknowledged.
