The House requested Professor Sibaji Pratin Basu to take over the Chair for conducting the Meeting. Professor Basu took over the Chair and conducted the Meeting. The House unanimously resolved on the following agenda:

Agenda 1:

Parents expressed particular satisfaction with the Department. They were very appreciative about it, particularly on the cooperation and responsiveness of the Teachers. A guardian, who is from marginalised background, went emotional and into tears, appreciating the positive experiences of his daughter. They also praised about the University's infrastructure and ambience, particularly security arrangements.

Agenda 2:

Parents expected that the Department and University continue their good works and support.

With nothing else to discuss, the Meeting ^{is} ended with thanks to and from the Chair.
